

“No one should die because they cannot afford health care, and no one should go broke because they get sick.”